PROFESSIONAL PERSONA EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

ARTISTS BIOGRAPHY

As a growing young professional and one who seeks employment within the music industry, it has been valuable to receive feedback both from my professional network and my current Business Communication team.

This document will provide throughout research that has been done by myself after conducting feedback and how it is best applicable to a role within the music industry. I hope this brings you comfort and confidence within my skills for this highly esteemed industry and that i am someone who is capable of being a part of it.

MY GENRE

Who am I as a leader? What is my "Genre" that I most cater to? After taking a "Personal People Style's" quiz, my calculations prompted me to have an 'Expressive' leadership style. This came to no shock as I believe that I could drive a team to success, but with a more personable and relaxed approach than what a 'Driver' may presume as. Relationships are important to me, as for any 'Expressive' leader and that is essential within this industry.

I understand what it is like being taunted with questions like "how did you get your start" or "how do you have confidence that you will succeed within this industry?" And the key to that within Music is your network. As someone who has proven themselves to value relationships, and understands peoples needs as I mark average for emotiveness, this easily translate into a successful position within the industry I most want to work for, Music.

SIGNIFICANT WORDS

WHEN SENDING OUT A SURVEY TO MY PROFESSIONAL NETWORK, THE LAST QUESTION PROMPTED INDIVIDUALS TO MARK WORDS THAT BEST DESCRIBED ME. ABOVE PORTRAYS WORDS BOTH I HAVE CHOSEN AS WELL AS MY NETWORK. THOUGH BELOW ARE WORDS CHOSEN BY MY NETWORK AND NOT MYSELF:

CALM+ATTENTION SEEKING, EXPERIMENTAL, RISK-TAKER

I took this moment to reflect on how potentially my outgoing personality may be taken as someone who is craving attention or making impulsive decisions. It is my plan to center that energy to a more professional balance.

FAN'S CRITICS CHALLENGES

- “You have a lot of passion—use it to inspire people to action around you! Also, you are heavily involved in activities-- You may consider evaluating which ones are most important.”
- “You are confident, though when you say something that may be apprehensive, you laugh. Don't! Do not get nervous to do so.”
- “You are a great leader but you should have more self confidence in your decisions.”

NEXT TOUR STOP

1. Confident Leader

I am confident in myself and my ideas, though after analyzing my research it may not always come off that way. I strive to speak out my thoughts with more of a stern voice.

2. Laser focused

I love to multitask! Though it can be presumed as someone who may be in a nutshell or does not “have it figured out”. I want to ensure any team I take on, blends in with one another.

3. Taking in Feedback

As someone who scores average for ‘emotiveness’ I can be seen as someone who is sensitive, which is true. Analyzing the following feedback was hard when reading comments on how others view your leadership different than yourself. Overall, I have learned to grow from the following comments.
